

Information About the Photocopied Identification Page

To have your application accepted and have the results mailed out, it must be accompanied by a photocopy of two pieces of identification that have been verified by a witness.

Note: An appointment may be required and there may be a fee charged for witnessing a document.

An acceptable witness is a commissioner for oaths, a notary public or a designated professional.

A notary public can usually be found in a law office. A commissioner for oaths may be found in the offices of:

- real estate agents or general insurance agents
- professional accountants
- rural post offices
- municipal offices
- high school principals
- police officers

A designated professional would include one of the following:

- dentist/medical doctor/chiropractor/optometrist/psychologist
- lawyer
- minister of religion
- pharmacist
- principal or vice-principal
- teacher or professor/instructor
- senior administrator at a community college or university
- judge/magistrate/police officer/RCMP officer
- justice of the peace
- postmaster
- professional accountant
- signing officer or manager at a bank, credit union, trust company, or other financial institution
- veterinarian
- social worker
- chief of a First Nations band
- funeral director
- nurse practitioner/registered nurse
- member of parliament
- member of a legislative assembly
- municipal official
- professional engineer

In order to verify your identification, the witness must:

1. Examine the original identification.
2. Ensure the original identification matches the photocopy.
3. Sign and date the photocopy page.
4. Provide his or her contact information (please print) including:
 - o name
 - o occupation or designation
 - o place of employment
 - o work address and a daytime telephone number
 - o the commission expiry date (if you are a commissioner of oaths)
